A Problem for Army Officers to Solve.

A WAY TO PREVENT DESERTION.

Every Soldier to Be Marked By the Surgeon—A Rumor About Blaine's Resignation—Experimenting on a New Gun. Other Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—Army officers are thinking of some way to prevent desertion, which of late years seems to be on the increase. Some time ago it was stated, upon what was deemed excellent authority, that President Harrison would issue a proclamation giving general amnesty to all deserters, such as was done when Gen. Grant was president in 1872, but up to this writing the order has not appeared, although Senator Plumb and others of its advocates have received assurance from the president that it will be done.

To the average layman the issuing of such an order looks like putting a premium on desertion, but the promoters of this idea argue that there are thousands of young men in the west who enlisted under assumed names, and then, tiring of the service, deserted; that this fact still hangs over them and acts as a bar to their business prospects in the future for fear of some day being hauled up by the military authorities. In order to prevent, if possible, the re-enlistment of men who have deserted from the army three or four times, it is now proposed to adopt an old custom that formerly prevailed in the army.

When a recruit now presents himself to the surgeons and is passed, the doctor will proceed to vaccinate him upon a certain portion of the body, which will, of course, be known to the army surgeon. Should this man desert the service and present himself at some recruiting rendezvous under an assumed name, as is done nearly every week, the fact that he is a deserter from the army will be clearly established. By the adoption of this simple method, it is believed that the great evil of desertion which has become such a source of worry and trouble to the officers will be mitigated, if not finally wiped out.

Blaine and the President.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—The Sunday Herald speaking of President Harrison's proposed visit to Bar Harbor, and Secretary Blaine's probable resignation, says: "The president last Friday had under consideration certain matters connected with the department of state, but declined to act conclusively upon them before having a personal conference with Secretary Blaine. In answer to inquiry regarding a prospective date for that conference, he said he expected to meet Mr. Blaine about the middle of August, and in answer to further inquiries regarding the reports of Mr. Blaine's resignation, he said he had no definite information regarding Mr. Blaine's intentions in that respect. The conference did not relate to appointment or American politics, but entirely to foreign affairs, and the inference impressed upon the minds of the President's interviewers was that as regards Mr. Blaine, the most cordial relations existed between him and his premier in matters relating to the latter's department. As regards Mr. Blaine's resignation, no doubt exists in the minds of those best informed, that he will give up his portfolio on or about the 1st of October proximo."

Watchmen as Policemen.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—With a view to giving the members of the watch force of the treasury ample authority in cases of emergency, the district commissioners have appointed all the watchmen special policemen. It frequently happens that the services of a policeman are badly needed about the department, and to avoid disputes which might otherwise arise if arrests were made without receiving proper authority, this course has been deemed the wisest to pursue. Accordingly the chief watchman, Capt. H. A. Cobough, and his entire force of twenty-two men have been commissioned and sworn in as policemen.

A Wire-Wound Gun.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—One of the results of the recent deliberations of the ordnance and fortification board was a decision to build a ten-inch wire-wound gun for experimental purposes. This recommendation has been approved, and the ordnance department has issued advertisements for proposals to furnish the necessary castings and forgings. The work of fabrication will be performed at the Watervliet arsenal. Advertisements have also been issued for one hundred seven-inch and fifty eleven-inch steel shells.

Coating Station in Samoa.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—A survey for a new wharf at the harbor of Pago-Pago, Samoa, where this government will establish a coaling station, has been made, and the report is now on its way to the navy department. Congress appropriated $100,000 for the establishment of a coaling station at this point and the erection of the necessary buildings. It is the purpose of the government to have at least 10,000 tons of coal there at all times.

Plenty of Advocates.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—There will be a vacancy on the 29th of next August in the corps of army chaplains, caused by the retirement of Post Chaplain George W. Collier, and there have already been filed at the war department 250 applications for this position.

CASSVILLE, Wis., July 22.—Ex-Governor Nelson Dewey, one of Wisconsin's early governors, died at midnight last night, aged 75 years.

Confessed His Crime.

HARRISBURG, Pa., July 22.—Two men were struck and killed by the western express in South Harrisburg Sunday morning. One was about 30 years old, the other about 20. The address, "John Keiser, Jersey City," was found in the pocket of one of them.

Killed by an Express Train.

BALTIMORE, Md., July 22.—Charles S. Gilman is under arrest, having confessed that he conspired with some New York confidence men, whom he allowed to rob and burn his store at East Gorham, about ten days ago, after he had placed a heavy insurance on the stock.

Perished in the Flames.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., July 22.—Michael McGrath and his wife, an aged couple, perished in their burning dwelling near Frackville, last night. The house was remote from any other, and help could not arrive in time for the rescue of the inmates.

ALKE STEAMER BURNED.

Narrow Escape of the Crew After Much Suffering.

SOUTH HAVEN, Mich., July 22.—The steam barge Josefa Furman, Capt. John G. Vosburg and crew of ten men from Cleveland, homeward bound from St. Joseph, Mich., where she had just discharged a cargo of coal, took fire between her boiler and engine about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, when twenty miles off this point. The fire raged fiercely and the boat was destroyed in an incredibly short time.

The crew were cut off by rapid progress of the flames from communication with the ship's boats and had barely time to snatch the hatch cover and some of the fenders from the flames, and hastily improvise rafts on which to make their escape. The rafts were so heavily freighted as to sink the occupants waist-deep in the lake, in which condition they remained, drifting about in a heavy sea swell until 8 o'clock last night, when they were rescued, completely exhausted, by the steamer Glenn and a crew of the life saving station here. When rescued Capt. Vosburg was almost lifeless from exhaustion and could not have survived another half hour.

He and his crew are being cared for here by citizens. They lost everything, including some good sized sums of money which they had in their effects on board. The steam barge was nearly new and cost $45,000 and belonged to Patrick Smith, of Cleveland. She was not insured.

Imprisoned in Castle Garden.

NEW YORK, July 22.—The steamship City of Chester, which arrived early Sunday morning from Liverpool, brought 180 cabin and 474 steerage passengers. She passed quarantine all right, but after reaching her dock a child among the steerage passengers was found to be suffering from an eruptive disease, which the ship's surgeon pronounced to be measles. The emigration commissioners feared it might be smallpox, and they locked up the 474 immigrants in Castle Garden until late in the afternoon, when the health officer of the port officially declared the child to be measles, and the imprisoned people were allowed to leave the garden.

Ran Into by a Hand-Car.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., July 22.—At Saybrook, on the Lake Erie and Western, near this city Friday, a hand-car moving at a very high rate of speed and propelled by four section men ran into a spring wagon at a crossing within the town limits. J. B. Wills, who was driving the wagon, was thrown out violently and the wagon overturned, and the hand-car and its contents sent flying into the ditch. Mr. Wills had his skull fractured and suffered from concussion of the brain and will die. A man on the hand-car named Nelson had three ribs broken and was injured internally and will probably die. One or two other section hands were badly hurt.

Going After Stiff.

BOSTON, July 22.—A special to The Herald from Manchester, N. H., says: James Fullerton, of Bedford, sailed for Europe yesterday to claim an immense estate on the Island of Arron, comprising the lands of Kilmichael and Whitfarland, which have been entailed for several hundred years in the Fullerton family. The woman who held the property under the Scotch law of entail has died, and there being no direct male heirs nearer than Mr. Fullerton, he has decided to go to Scotland at once. This will be his first visit since leaving Arron five years ago, when he was but seven years old.

Terrible Experience at Sea.

NEW YORK, July 22.—The steamship Hawkurst, Capt. Robinson, has just arrived from a Brazilian port. On her outward trip from New York the steamer had a terrible experience. Her cargo, consisting of 200 barrels of oil and a quantity of tow, caught fire and her crew tried to extinguish it. The captain, however, compelled them to remain on the vessel, and successfully made the run of 2,300 miles with the fire smouldering in her hold.

Fell Down An Elevator Shaft.

NEW YORK, July 22.—Fred. Fuller, aged 24 years, a waiter at the Hotel Gerlach, fell down the elevator shaft from the ninth story to the basement, 110 feet, Sunday, and was killed. The fall was due to his own carelessness. He raced with the elevator boy, who was in the hall, and reaching the shaft first opened the door and stepped in. The elevator was not there and he fell down the shaft.

At Rest at Last.

NEW YORK, July 22.—Jacob Schmidt, proprietor and editor of The Beobachter, died here yesterday, aged 48 years. He was born in Germany, came to America in 1855, served in the Ninth New Jersey volunteers during the war, and has been prominent in Republican politics.

Killed by an Express Train.

HARRISBURG, Pa., July 22.—Two men were struck and killed by the western express in South Harrisburg Sunday morning. One was about 30 years old, the other about 20. The address, "John Keiser, Jersey City," was found in the pocket of one of them.

Another Dam Breaks,

And a Reservoir is Emptied of Its Contents.

FLOOD IN THE HOCKING VALLEY.

Hundreds of Heads of Live Stock Swept Away—Trees, Fences and Crops Destroyed—Fortunately No Human Lives Were Sacrificed.

LANCASTER, O., July 22.—Saturday one of the most disastrous storms ever known in the Hocking Valley culminated in the breaking of Sharp's dam at Sugar Grove, on the Hocking canal. The dam held in store a large body of water that supplied the lower levels of the canal. The heavy rains had filled the reservoir to the banks, when suddenly the dam gave way, and with a mighty roar the sea of water went out through the valley, taking with it every movable object.

For twenty miles the soil is ploughed up. Trees, fences, crops and hundreds of head of live stock have been swept away. No lives were lost because the people had taken warning and because the houses are situated on the bluff that overlooks the valley. But the canal for miles is a wreck, and thousands of feet of railroad track are washed away.

At Athens the Cincinnati, Washington and Baltimore and Hocking Valley railroad tracks are carried away and trains will be delayed several days. Roads and bridges are annihilated, and the whole valley for miles looks like dry water course. Competent judges place the loss in the hundreds of thousands.

IN THE LITTLE KANAWHA VALLEY.

The Flood Disaster Much Greater Than at First Reported.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., July 22.—News has been received from all parts of Wood and Wirt counties and the affliction proves to be far worse than was first dreamed of. The county commissioners estimate that the loss in this county alone will reach $500,000. Nearly all of this is on the south side of the Little Kanawha river. Farmers living on Lee creek, Clate creek, Big Tigard creek and Pond creek have lost nearly all their possessions. A meeting is to be held tomorrow night to discuss plans of relief. A call for aid will be made as many families in this and Wirt county are entirely without anything on which to subsist.

A telephone message late yesterday evening from Elizabeth says that the village of Morristown is entirely destroyed, eight dwelling houses, two stores, the Baptist church, tobacco packing house and other buildings are gone. Seven lives were lost in Tucker's creek. They are Orville West, wife and two children; John Bailey and Roy Kiger and his wife, and another unknown person. John Hughes, his wife and three children, living on the head of the creek, were drowned. Other deaths were Mrs. Isaac Roberts, Edward Bosco, Mrs. Isaac Tucker, all in this county.

Orville West, whose family were drowned, made a heroic effort to save them. He floated with them four miles down Tucker creek, trying to get them to shore, but they were carried away from him. James Roberts, whose mother was drowned, tried to save her by carrying her from a floating house to shore, but he fell, and she was swept away. He had already saved two small children.

Navigation will be suspended for a good while because of the break in lock No. 1, in Little Kanawha, and up-the-river people will have no communication with the outside world.

GREENUP Democrats have nominated J. Watt Womack for Representative.

TWO WEEKS from to-day the August election will take place. Every Democrat should turn out and vote for Fraze, Poyntz and Sharp.

HON. JOHN P. NEWMAN is the Democratic nominee in Campbell County for State Senator. Mr. Newman spoke here during the campaign last fall.

NEARLY one-half the State taxes is for public school purposes. There has been a steady improvement in the condition of the fund during the administration of State Superintendent Pickett, and the per capita now is larger than ever before. In 1882-3 it was $1.30; 1883-4, $1.40; 1884-5, $1.55; 1885-6, $1.65; 1886-7, $1.65; 1887-8, $1.90; 1888-9, $2.05; 1889-90, $2.15.

DURING the past fiscal year General Buell, who had charge of the Pension Office at Louisville, paid out over $2,800,000. The amount of first payments for 1,667 new pensioners was $1,898,000. There are 13,997 pensioners drawing their allowance through this office. During the year there were added to the list 1,257 invalid pensioners and 626 widows. This includes all kinds of pensioners from the war of 1812 to the late rebellion.

"TALK's cheap," and the high tariffites indulged in a good deal of it during the last campaign. A certain woolen manufacturer of Pennsylvania was one of the fellows who turned his tongue loose. He declared "that if Cleveland were elected he would sell his mill at 25 per cent. under its assessed value, and assigned as a reason that the Mills Bill would destroy his business. Cleveland was not elected and the Mills Bill was defeated. Harrison was elected and the tariff was victorious, and a few days ago the Sheriff sold that fellow's mill for less than half its value." "An other victory for the tariff tax on wool," exclaims the Louisville Times. Give the manufacturers of this country "free raw material" and they'll flourish.

ONE clause in the Republican State platform says:

We note with pleasure the growth of our Commonwealth in the steady development of the industries throughout the State.

In the face of this the Republican State Central Committee issues an "appeal to reason" in which they say "the Democratic party has had full control of the affairs of our Commonwealth for the last twenty years," but has failed "to accomplish any thing for the public weal." Republicans should be a little more consistent in their declarations. One of the hobbies of their stump orators is that Kentucky is away behind the times in industrial development and that the Democrats are responsible for this alleged condition of affairs, and yet the Republicans at State convention assembled, said to the people that "we note with pleasure the growth of our Commonwealth in the steady development of all industries throughout the State."

A VOTE for Sharp for State Treasurer is a vote endorsing J. W. Tate and his methods.—Fleming Gazette.

This is the merest bosh. Doesn't the Gazette know that the thieves and defaulters are not confined to any political party? And if a vote for Sharp is a vote endorsing Tate and his methods, then a vote for Colson will be a vote endorsing the thieves and robbers of the Republican party. The Auditor of Warren County, one of the banner Republican counties of Ohio, is a refugee from justice. He has been detected in drawing orders upon the treasury without warrant or authority. The Treasurer of the same Republican county is in custody charged with helping the Auditor to rob the people. But that is no reason why the Republicans of Warren County should not support their State nominees next fall. Nor will such a vote on their part be an endorsement of the thieving methods of Warren's Auditor and Treasurer. Nor will a vote for Sharp be a vote endorsing Tate.

Hon. James B. McCreary.

He will address the citizens of Maysville and vicinity at the court house next Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. All are cordially invited to hear him.

Campaign Talk.

The Republican cry in the present State campaign is that a vote for Sharp is "a vote to endorse Tate and his methods." They don't talk much of anything else but Tate and Tate's stealings. This might all be very well if there had never been any Republican defaulters. Their argument is a rather poor one. If the Democratic party is to be held responsible for Tate's robberies, then why not hold the Republican party to account for the defalcations of the many Republican officials? Here is a part of their record: A year or so ago, Hon. E. H. Fairchild, Secretary of the United States Treasury, in response to resolution of the House of Representatives, reported that Republican officials had, from 1866 to 1884, defrauded for the enormous sum of $11,408,696.77. Below are a few cases culled from the report:

Arthur Gilson, Assistant Treasurer at New Orleans, La., defrauded for $564,212.67.

F. E. Spitzer, United States Treasurer, $389,267.46.

A. J. Axler, Marshal District of Kentucky, $10,545.06.

G. N. Carlton, designated depository at Little Rock, Ark., $223,671.78.

F. R. Snyder, Treasurer branch mint, San Francisco, Cal., $152,377.03.

Joshua F. Bally, Collector Internal Revenue, Fourth district of New York, $204,203.09.

Louis B. Collins, Collector Internal Revenue, Third Louisiana district, $673,861.79.

B. C. Saunders, Collector of Customs, San Francisco, Cal., $92,256.42.

R. M. Kelly, Pension Agent for Kentucky, about $62,000, which was made up and paid by his friends.

In 1859, Benjamin D. Peck, State Treasurer or Matre, defrauded for about $40,000. His secretaries settled with the State through a committee of the Legislature, of which James G. Blaine was Chairman, for $37,000. The case is fully reported in the records of the Supreme Court of Maine.

The Republican Secretary of State, Oregon, embezzled $40,000 of the State's money, in 1870.

Let us add a few more cases to the record. At Cincinnati Saturday, Gus Suesseman, Jr., was arrested on charge of embezzling some of the city's funds while a clerk in the office of Comptroller Eshelby. The worst feature of this case is that the accused was kept in the office after Eshelby and most everybody else knew the fellow had robbed two societies of which he was a member.

Again, it has just been discovered that the Republican Treasurer and Auditor of Warren County, O., have systematically robbed the people out of thousands of dollars.

Several of the Republican officials of Colorado were arrested a few days ago charged with swindling that State.

The list might be continued, but enough has been said to show how foolish the Republicans are in relying on Mr. Tate's defalcation as an argument against Mr. Sharp and in favor of Mr. Colson, their nominee for State Treasurer.

The following were unanimously adopted at a meeting of the First Baptist Church Sunday morning, July 21st:

WHEREAS, Our pastor, Rev. R. B. Garrett, has offered his resignation, to take effect September 1st, 1889;

Resolved, That we command him to the church as a faithful and able preacher of the Word, sound in doctrine and strong in faith.

Resolved, That our prayers and best wishes shall go with him to his new field of labor.

THE LIGHTNING'S WORK.

James Guilfoyle Instantly Killed and Several Prostrated by an Electric Shock.

Chamber's warehouse, situated on the Lexington pike a few miles from this city, was struck by lightning during the storm Saturday afternoon about 1 o'clock. In the building at the time there were several people, among them Messrs. John Chambers, James Guilfoyle, William Guilfoyle, Ed. Buckley and Dave Adams, colored. The Messrs. Guilfoyle were delivering a load of tobacco. Mr. James Guilfoyle was on the wagon, and engaged in handing off the tobacco to some of the others who were carrying it into the building. Near by him was one of the poets supporting the shed, and down this the current passed. The shock was a terrific one, killing him and prostrating everybody else in the building and rendering them unconscious for some time. Mr. Chambers was the first to recover. He found himself about fifteen feet from where he was standing when the stroke was received. Dave Adams, colored, was in a hogshead prizing tobacco when the building was struck. When he recovered consciousness he found himself on the outside of the hogshead. The man who was killed was on the rear end of the wagon. Two others, who were on the front part, were prostrated, but finally recovered. The horses hitched to the wagon were prevented from running off by one of the wheels catching against a post.

James Guilfoyle was twenty-six years of age and unmarried. He was a cousin of Mr. Thomas Guilfoyle, of the St. James Hotel, and lived near Murphysville. His remains were interred yesterday in the cemetery at Washington.

V.' train at South Portsmouth a few days ago, but was soon out on the platform seeking the agent to learn which car he should take. On being instructed to take the car in front of him, he replied, 'No, I don't want a palace car; I was on that car.' On being assured that it was only a common car, the poorest in the train, he again entered it but kept one eye on the porter until learning from the conductor that he could keep his seat in that car. He was not accustomed to riding on first-class trains."

The Kentucky Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, will convene September 11, and committees are now at work securing homes for the 200 delegates to be present. The regular session of the conference is one week, but a special says: "It is likely to continue longer this year on account of the trouble about the removal of the Kentucky Wesleyan College from Millersburg to Winchester, which will be brought up and every minister given a chance to express an opinion on the subject. Bishop Wilson, who is to have charge of the conference, came near being killed in a railroad accident in Virginia last week. He was badly bruised and lost all his baggage and $300 in money."

A few days since the Independent and Welcome Tidings, of Hardin County, published a letter signed Judge Lynch, threatening punishment to a young man, who, it is alleged, had killed his wife, but had been whitewashed by a Coroner's jury. The editors of the papers were arrested for this. Saturday they were tried. Messrs. Stovall and Duncan, of the Independent, were convicted by Justice O'Meara and sent to jail. Mr. Givens, of the Welcome Tidings, swore O'Meara off the bench and was tried by Magistrate Terry, who dismissed the prisoner, though the offense and evidence were the same in both cases. Justice O'Meara did not order his prisoners sent to jail and they walked out of the courtroom. Public opinion is said to be with the editors.

A Chapter of Crimes.

An Old Colored Man Shoots Four People.

FEARFUL FIGHT FOR LIBERTY.

He is Finally Captured and Landed in the Chicago Jail—An Officer Probably Fatally Shot Near Cleveland—Other Crimes.

CHICAGO, July 22.—Henry Nutt, a colored man 60 years old, shot two men and two boys last night. Yesterday he had some words with Mrs. Moore, his boarding house keeper. When Ed. Johnson, her stepson, came home she complained of Nutt's conduct, and Johnson upbraided Nutt. Nutt drew his 44-caliber revolver and promptly opened fire. The first ball grazed Johnson's thigh and the second hit Thomas Watson, shattering the shin bone.

Nutt then ran into the street and was pointed out to Officer Shea. The policeman gave chase and Nutt turned and fired two shots in quick succession. The first missed the officer, but hit a little colored boy named Ira Mitchell, under the left eye. The wound is not dangerous. The second shot also missed its mark, but was fired at such close quarters that the blaze from the mouth of the pistol burned the officer's eye brows. The bullet hit another boy about a block away.

Nutt was not disposed to yield his liberty, and, finding his weapon empty, began a terrific struggle with the officer, biting, scratching and kicking with all his might. He succeeded in getting the officer's thumb between his teeth, and it was not until the policeman pushed his own revolver down the negro's throat and told him he would kill him unless he became quiet that he finally concluded to submit. He was then taken to the station. An examination of Shea's thumb showed that it had been nearly severed from his hand.

A LIVELY BATTLE.

An Unknown Man Killed, and a Deputy Sheriff Wounded.

CLEVELAND, O., July 22.—Two young criminals escaped from the county jail about 8:30 o'clock Saturday night. They were W. A. Smith, held for grand larceny, and Richard N. Mansfield, a horse thief. Deputy sheriffs and policemen started on their trail, and shortly after midnight two men in a buggy were overhauled by a detachment of pursuers. Revolvers were drawn, a score of shots were exchanged, and Deputy Sheriff Goldsoll, one of the best criminal officers that ever served in the city, fell with a wound that will probably prove fatal. The men in the buggy drove away.

Shortly afterward the buggy was found abandoned, with the body of a young man, supposed to be Smith, in it. Later it developed that it was not Smith, and up to this time the body had not been identified. The police believe that the young men in the buggy were bent on some unlawful mission. The entire city and its suburbs is being scoured in search of the dead man's companion and the escaped prisoners. The search has been vigorously prosecuted, but no lead has been obtained which would lead to the whereabouts of the fugitives. The wounded deputy sheriff is lying at the point of death in hospital.

A Triple Tragedy.

CLEVELAND, O., July 22.—At Edgerton, O., Sunday morning Hiram Hoadly, Jr., shot and killed his wife and her father, a farmer named Newman, and then killed himself. Hoadly laid in wait for his wife as she went out to the barn to milk the cows, and shot her down. Newman hearing the report, ran to his daughter's aid and received a bullet in the breast. Hoadly then went to the house and tried to kill his mother-in-law, failing in which he returned to the barn, lay down beside his wife's body and put a bullet in his head. He had three revolvers on his person, and it is thought he intended to kill the entire Newman family.

Attempt to Kill His Half Sister.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., July 22.—James Marlowe attacked his half sister, Mrs. Ester Lyman, with an ax early Sunday morning, because she refused to lend him some money. He cut her head open and then beat and kicked her so that she is not expected to live. He gave himself to the police. Mrs. Lyman, who is white, married a negro recently, but did not live with him.

Graham Sends Over Another Barrel.

BUFFALO, N. Y., July 22.—Carlisle D. Graham sent another so-called "life barrel" over the falls at 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon, and it met the same fate as the one sent over the cataract on June 23. The barrel was seen to go over the falls, but must have had several ribs badly shattered, for after emerging from the mass of whirling water, it quickly went to pieces. Graham had announced that if the barrel came out all right he would make the trip himself in the near future. He will construct another barrel of more strength than the two already sent over. There was a large excursion here from New York and a number of well known sportingmen were present.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 22.—The two circus followers who were arrested at Barry, Ill., in an attempt to rob the postoffice, had their trial Saturday in the United States court, and were convicted. Sentence is withheld, pending the hearing of a motion for a new trial. They gave their names as John Keenor and Frank C. Stanton. Most likely a re-hearing will be refused.

Postoffice Robbed of a Large Amount.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 22.—A bold robbery was committed at the postoffice during the noon hour yesterday, but the officials are reticent about giving any of the particulars. A package of about forty registered letters, said to contain about $10,000, was stolen from the registry department. It is supposed to have been the work of a sneak thief.
